4 October 1988

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Intelligence

FROM: R. W. Manners
Director, Foreign Broadcast Information Service

SUBJECT: FBIS Bureau Chiefs Conference

1. I would like you to know that the FBIS Bureau Chiefs and senior FBIS Headquarters managers greatly enjoyed your observations on the world situation. Taking our cue from your comment about ignoring countries whose leaders' names are difficult to pronounce, we have decided to reassess our collection priorities and consider devoting more resources to the coverage of England, Australia, New Zealand, and Canada.

2. On a more serious note, I do want to thank you for taking the time to share your views with FBIS managers. As collectors divorced from the analyst, FBIS field managers need periodically to hear analysts (in this case, The Analyst) describe the world from their point of view. Your presentation was a masterful case in point.

3. Again, thank you for contributing to the success of our conference. I hope that we can call upon you to address the next conference.

R. W. Manners
